Eternal Fellowship News Bulletin

We believe in one GOD, in three persons; FATHER, SON and HOLY SPIRIT. We regard the Bible (both Hebrew Bible and New Testament) as the only infallible authoritative WORD OF GOD.

HULDAH MINISTRY aims to return to the Word Of God, founded on Hebrew background and to interpret it from Hebraic perspective, acknowledging that Jesus is a Jew and the Jewish-ness of His teaching as a continuation from the Hebrew Bible. The Ministry also aims to put His teaching into practice, to have a closer relationship with the Lord, Jesus Christ, and to regularly have a Christian fellowship so that this-worldly kingdom of God will materialise in the midst of the followers of Jesus here and now, as well as earnestly seeking Christ's Return to establish the otherworldly Kingdom of God on earth.

All activities are free of charge and no obligation whatever. Just enjoy our fellowship!

HULDAH MINISTRY

LETTER TO THE BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN CHRIST

【THE BOOK OF ENOCH Ch. 10】

“Then the Most High, the Great and Holy One, spoke and sent Arsjalâljar to the son of Lamech (who was Noah), and said to him:

“ ‘Tell him in my name: “Hide thyself!” and reveal to him the end which is to come. For the whole earth will be destroyed, and the water of the deluge is about to come over the whole earth, and what is upon it will be destroyed.

“ ‘And now instruct him that he may escape and his seed remain on the whole earth.’

“And again the Lord spoke to Rufael (Raphael): ‘Bind Azâzêl hand and foot, and put him in the darkness; make an opening in the desert, which is in Dudâêl, and put him there.

“ ‘And lay upon him rough and pointed rocks, and cover him with darkness that he may remain there forever, and cover his face that he may not see the light!

“ ‘And on the great day of judgment he will be cast into the fire.

“ ‘And heal the earth which the angels have defiled, and announce the healing of the earth that I will heal it, and that not all the sons of men shall be destroyed through the mystery of all the things which the watchers have spoken and have taught their sons.

“ ‘And the whole earth was defiled through the example of the deeds of Azâzêl; to him ascribe all the sins.’

“And God said to Gabriel: ‘Go against the bastards and those cast off and against the children of fornication, and destroy the children of fornication and the children of the watchers from among men; lead them out, and let them loose that they may destroy each other by murder; for their days shall not long.

“ ‘And they will all supplicate thee, but their fathers will secure nothing for them, although they expect an everlasting life, and that each one of them will live five hundred years.’

“ ‘And God said to Michael: ‘Announce to Semjâzâ and to the others who are with him, who have bound themselves to women, to be destroyed with them in all their contamination.

“ ‘When all their sons shall have slain one another, and they shall have seen the destruction of their beloved ones, bind them under the hills of the earth for seventy generations, till the day of their judgment and their end, till the last judgment has been passed for all eternity.

“ ‘And in those days they will be led to the abyss of fire, in torture and in prison they will be locked for all eternity.

“ ‘And then he will burn, and be destroyed; they will be burned together from now on to the end of all generations.

“ ‘And destroy all souls of lust and the children of the watchers, because they have oppressed mankind.

“ ‘Destroy all oppression from the face of the earth, and all wicked deeds shall cease, and the plant of justice and righteousness shall appear, and deeds will become a blessing: justice and righteousness will be planted in joy forever.....

.....“ ‘And the earth will be cleansed of all corruption and all sin and all punishment and all torment, and I will never again send a flood upon it, from generation to generation, to eternity.’ ”

ENOCH 10:1-16, :22.

Lately, it is said that one year after the global financial crisis a new world order would merge. September last year, the bankruptcy of investment bank Lehman Brothers triggered a global financial panic and in several months the world governments attempted to stop it in various ways, by paying down debts and saving money, with little effect. In the end, claiming that the system of currencies and capital rules that binds the world economy is not working properly, and such a system was largely responsible for the financial and economic crises, the United Nations (UN) proposed that the present system which revolves around the dollar as the world's reserve currency should be radically be reconsidered and the dollar replaced by a new global currency.

Today, the UN, World Trade Organization, International Criminal Court, UN police force, and numerous UN NGO's and also other agencies are said to be in preliminary steps towards the establishment of a one world government. The increasing terrorist threat and the Middle East conflict is understood only to speed up the formation of this governing body because fear and promises of better security make more people willing to give up their national sovereignty for global governance. Desire of a united global entity seems to be becoming a current great trend.

The Bible tells many signs of the coming end of the age. Christ taught six signs in Matthew ch.24: 1) The appearance of false prophets and false christs, which preludes the ultimate false christ, “the antichrist”; 2) Wars not only in the Middle East but in nations, kingdoms and places across the globe by the use of devastating weapons of mass destruction; 3) Famines in which a large portion of the world's five billion people will suffer from a shortage of food, while the use (or a plan of use) of GM food, genetically manipulated farm animals such as more milk producing dairy cows, cloned animals as food, growth hormone genes-manipulated fish such as super-salmon, and so on is increased to produce larger quantities of ever cheaper meat, milk, egg, vegetables, fruits and grains; 4) Earthquakes, a staggering number of seismic events occurring around the world daily; 5) Tribulations; 6) World-wide spread of the gospel, enabled by developed technology on television, radio, mobile-phone, computer and travel means.

Godlessness and apostasy encouraged by false teaching and deceptions are other characteristics of the end times. A strong trend of Christian Church today is ecumenicalism, embracing the New Age interfaith agenda, and denying Christ as the only way to salvation. Giving in to the politically oriented media and to a corrupt society, and putting value on feelings of the individual human being, the church has embraced homosexuality as an acceptable alternate lifestyle. The Church preaches tolerance and compromises with the world, exchanging God's truth for the peace and survival in this world. The environmentalist movement within the New Age movement undeniably lures Christians into psychological reasoning, supernatural experience, a worship of mother earth, belief in past lives, reincarnation, and spiritualism. It is increasingly obvious that the time of the Lord's second coming is drawing near because many prophecies in the Bible are increasingly being fulfilled, at a faster pace than ever before. The beginning of birth pains and the signs of the times should be taken seriously, and hence, this should motivate us to reach out to as many souls as possible in the world as Christ commissioned His disciples to go out to all nations, bringing the message of salvation through Him.

Above all, the coming of great deception is the most important aspect of the end times. All Christians should be well prepared not only to share the gospel with others, but also keep themselves from falling into a trap of false teachings and false phenomena by the firm understanding of prophecy through the study of the Word. We have already often examined the present-day false teachings and so, this month we would like to turn our eyes to supernatural phenomena happening around us today.

This summer the appearance of the unidentified flying objects (UFOs) in Cambridgeshire and the latest crop circle in Knighton Hill, Oxfordshire (the largest maize formation ever in England) on 29th August were reported. In England, August is a peak month for the formation of crop circle and more than ten have been reported within a month this year. Since appearing in the media in the 1970s, crop circles have become the subject of various paranormal and beliefs, ranging from the hypothesis that they are created by freak meteorological and atmospheric phenomena to the belief that they represent messages from extraterrestrials. But for the time being they have been dismissed by experts as being man-made hoaxes since some groups of people claimed to have created them and actually demonstrated it. However, the fact that designs of crop circles of late have become more and more complex, and increasing reports of UFOs and other lights in the sky in connection with many crop-circle sites, including some people's claim to have seen images of UFOs forming crop circles or flying over them, make it increasingly plausible that they are genuinely associated with UFOs and aliens. UFO observers' claims indicate that what they saw were neither planes nor balloons because there were no noise and no navigation lights and especially their movement was distinctive in that their heading and height was relatively constant until they disappeared out of sight.

Recently, the appearance of such mysterious existence, UFOs and alien species has been witnessed more frequently than before. While in secular world the existence of extraterrestrials, i.e., intelligent life out there (ETIs), is believed, from a biblical perspective, so-called aliens are nothing less than fallen angels and demons (unclean spirits). Scientists today are said to believe the theoretical possibility that there are many other planets in the universe capable of supporting life, using data generated from a computer model of the galaxy. According to the discovery of more than 330 planets outside our solar system in recent years, some estimated that there are at least 361 intelligent civilizations and possibly as many as 38,000. However, it should be noticed that there are several major assumptions, based upon which the model was created, but none of which have been proven to be factual: 1. Planet earth is not unique in the universe. 2. Life is capable of spontaneously arising from non-living matter. 3. If life evolved on planet earth, then it must have evolved elsewhere (<http://news.bbc.co.uk/go/pr/fr/-/2/hi/science/nature/7870562.stm>).

Thus, although the idea of evolution and the existence of intelligent life on other planets are all big lies, based upon mere assumptions, unfortunately man's mind have been deeply instilled by it with the help of education, literature, films and television. Such compromised belief is in fact becoming popular in the Church; with Christians claiming that God allowed evolution to proceed, transforming an ape-like creature into Adam as a man, clearly denying the biblical statement that God directly created Adam from dust. And yet, in the secular world, any possibility that intelligent life on earth or elsewhere evolved by chance has been admitted to be instantly dismissable. It is understood that even Nobel molecular biologist Jacques Monod gives more than a dozen reasons why evolution could not occur though he simply refuses to accept divine creation. Also somebody put it ‘This (mathematical impossibility) is well known to geneticists and yet nobody seems to blow the whistle decisively on the theory...because of its grip on the educational system.’

Then why is such completely impossible theory still shown on TVs and favoured by literature and education? The Bible declares there was no death before the first man, Adam’s sin, so no species could have gone through the dying process and evolve into higher beings. The Bible clearly states the presence of intelligent life created before man. At the same time, it also declares that the earth alone is the place where intelligent life can be accommodated. What is called intelligent life prior man is ‘בְּנֵי הַאֱלֹהִים’, the sons of God’ in Hebrews, i.e., angels. Where Satan, who was the chief of the fallen angels, aimed to come to spread rebellion against God was nothing else but this earth. He successfully tempted Adam and Eve into sin, and this is the beginning of human history. Since then, the battle between God’s faithful “watchers”, that is, His obedient angels –Michael, Gabriel, Raphael and Uriel–, and Satan and his cohort has been raging.

The passage quoted from the Book of Enoch at the beginning illustrates what happened in the heavenly realm shortly before the Noah’s Flood. From this passage it is apparent that the Flood took place as judgment upon the rebel angels, in which the whole earth and creatures on it except Noah’s eight family members and genetically uncontaminated animals were completely destroyed. Chapter 10 starts with the scene of the report of Azâzêl’s rebellion against God by four archangels, “seraphim” around the throne of God, represented by lion, calf, man and eagle as depicted in Revelation 4:7. These watchers’ report was immediately taken seriously by God and God told Gabriel to bind Azâzêl by hand and foot to put him in the darkness with the other wicked fallen angels for seventy generations. ‘Bind them under the hills of the earth for seventy generations, till the day of their judgment and their end, till the last judgment has been passed for all eternity. “And in those days they will be led to the abyss of fire, in torture and in prison they will be locked for all eternity’ (Lines added) is an interesting prophecy of Enoch because according to Luke’s Gospel Jesus Christ was exactly the seventy-seventh generation from Adam. These verses clearly predict the doom of those fallen angels by Christ.

In His first coming, immediately after Christ’s death He went down to the dungeon to proclaim His victory over spiritual enemies, sin, death, hell and Satan, where fallen angels had been incarcerated since Noah’s time as Peter depicted: ‘For Christ died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God...he went and preached to the spirits in prison who disobeyed long ago when God waited patiently in the days of Noah while the ark was being built’(1Peter3:18-20). Thus, after He disarmed the fallen angels, Christ made a public display of them as Paul put it: ‘When he ascended on high, he led captives in his train and gave gifts to men’(Eph.4:8), and also, ‘having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross’(Col.2:15) in His ascension. Biblical prophecy also tells of the doom of Satan and his followers at the Lord’s second coming: ‘I saw heaven standing open and there before me was a white horse, whose rider is called Faithful and True. With justice he judges and makes war...an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key to the Abyss and holding in his hand a great chain. He seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the devil, or Satan, and bound him for a thousand years. He threw him into the Abyss, and locked and sealed it over him’ (Re.19:11-20:3). Accordingly, until Christ’s second coming, Satan will devise any means to deceive man to delay his capture.
